DETOUR Proudly Presents "An Illustrated Philosophy": Guttestreker's Debut Solo Exhibition Abroad

New York City, NY — May 3, 2024 — DETOUR is thrilled to announce the debut solo exhibition of Guttestreker, the dynamic artistic duo composed of Petter Malterud Grøndahl and Christoffer Kroge Christensen. The exhibition, titled "An Illustrated Philosophy," will be hosted at DETOUR's gallery space in New York City, located at 545 W 23rd St. New York, NY.

DETOUR is honored to showcase Guttestreker's captivating artwork, which seamlessly merges meticulous craftsmanship with profound thematic exploration. Hailing from their base in Oslo, Norway, Guttestreker creates expansive artworks that delve into contemporary issues, drawing inspiration from natural discoveries, historical events, generational challenges, and academic literature. Each piece, meticulously crafted with pen, markers, and digital tools, undergoes a process spanning several months to half a year.

Grounded in scientific principles, Guttestreker's art invites viewers to engage in meaningful conversations. The duo challenges conventional notions, prompting audiences to reconsider their perspectives on inheritance and entitlement.

This exhibition marks a significant milestone for Guttestreker as it represents their first solo showcase overseas, introducing their thought-provoking work to the US audience.

"An Illustrated Philosophy" invites viewers to embark on a journey of contemplation, where art serves as a conduit for exploring profound philosophical inquiries. Guttestreker's meticulously crafted scenes, bursting with vibrant colors and intriguing details, prompt audiences to delve deeper into the complexities of the human experience.

The opening reception will be held on May 30th from 6 - 8 PM at 545 W 23rd St. New York, NY.
